Bashir Hussain is a Pakistani army officer. He is chief instructor in Army Intelligence School, and he offers a lot of help to Sushil. When Sushil and Pawan were in their teens, Sushil was a don of their regiment in India and Pawan was a noob. After the surrender of both countries, their relations become strained. Sushil fails to realize that he had a callous attitude towards his countrymen, especially his childhood friend. He is charged with treason for his failure. When Sushil meets Parwatee, a girl from his hometown, he realizes how good his attitude was towards his countrymen, and how just he is. On a later date, he realizes that he loves Parwatee, and he cannot remain indifferent to her. He tells her to forget him, but she cannot.
